5. Before considering the claims of any of the foregoing, it has first to be decided whether the pension of the deceased shall not, according to the Chief Commissioners' N order of 1868, go to her surviving sister Putta Parvathi Ammanni, and to lapse to the State after the latter's death along with her own pension. In case that order is to prevail, none of the present petitioners can get anything, and the deceased's pension will accrue to her sister during her life. If, on the other hand, it is considered that the pension can be continued to the deceased's heirs, the claims of the petitioners will have to be referred to the Khazana Baqeshi for investigation and report.

6. Mr Bowring's order laying down that the pensions are life grants and shall ultimately lapse to the State has been affirmed in the following cases:—

1. SRA 125-08, Sls 102; in which the prayer of Putta Parvathi Ammanni to dedicate a portion of her pension permanently to certain temples was rejected on the ground that her pension being limited to her life she cannot alienate it in the manner proposed.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

2. SJA 125-08, Sls 2a 23; in which it was held, on the application of Venkatalakshamma nee for the transfer of her pension to her son, that there is no good reason to alter the order of 1868.

7 That it was not the Govts intention later on to give effect to Bannings order in all its strictness, can however be seen from the following:—

1. G.O. no 31-PJA 5-1894 dt 22-6-1895, where it was ordered that the existing arrangement, under which the two daughters of the original pensioner were enjoying the pension, could not be disturbed during their lifetime; meaning thereby that the arrangement ordered in 1868 might be changed thereafter.

2. The later policy of Govt not to allow lapses of existing pollegar pensions except in the contingency of all branches of any particular family becoming extinct; vide page 3 of the office note in SJA 125-08, Sls 1&2

3. Sir Sheshadri Iyer's note in respect of Puttaparvathi Ammanni's prayer for permission to grant a portion of her pension permanently to certain temples; vide extract on page 3 of the same file. He was inclined to grant the prayer.

8 Putta Parvathi Ammanni, to whom, under Mr Bowring's order, Venkatalakshammanni's pension is to go, is herself drawing a life pension viz Rs 152-8-7 p.m. She is said to be 70 years old, and has no children. Out of her pension she has granted a portion viz, Rs 86-10-8 to the temples at Nandi & Ranastala. Whether in these circumstances it would not be superfluous to double the amount she is already getting, is also a point for consideration.

9. The points for orders are:—

(i) whether, under the order of 1868, Venkata Lakshammanni's pension of Rs 152-8-7 should accrue to her surviving sister;

(ii) whether, in case the pensions are to ultimately lapse to Govt, the deceased's pension should not at once lapse, in view of the circumstances in life of her sister; or

(iii) whether according to the later policy of H.M.'s Govt the pension need not

15 A particular mode of devolution of the pensions and its ultimate lapse was expressly laid down & the Secretary of State when the pension was ~~first granted~~ regularised in 1868. It is undesirable that he should now go behind the conditions then laid down. The portion that Pullen Parvathavarthini's knowledge is in itself ~~insufficient~~ too much for her & she has been making large grants for charitable purposes out of it. There is therefore no need to add on this portion to which it may lapse. The other claimants have no right & it may not be desirable to give them the right of succeeding to the pension now.

BEFORE THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE

MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.

(Political Pension Department)

Chennannappayya, aged 9 years, minor by guardian and paternal aunt Chickka Venkata - Lakshmammannigaru. ..... Petitioner.

The petitioner abovenamed begs to state as follows:-

1. That the petitioner's father's mother Dodda Venkata Lakshmammanni of Iniminchenahalli, Purnasagara Hobli, Chickkaballapur Taluk, was - drawing a Pallegar Pension of Rs.152-8-7 per mensem and died about 4 months ago.

2. That Dodda Venkata Lakshmammanni had two children viz, one son named Anantharamaswamy who died 3½ years ago and one daughter Chickka Venkata-Lakshmammannigaru who is the present petitioner's guardian.

3. That Anantharamaswamy had two sons and two daughters but of the two sons, the elder son Venkata-Narayanaswamy died about 2 months ago and the younger son is the present petitioner.

4. That under the registered will dated 14th - July 1913 left by Dodda Venkata Lakshmammanni she has expressed expressed her wishes in clear terms to the effect that after her death the Pension which she was drawing should be enjoyed by her grandsons viz, the present petitioner and his deceased brother in equal halves. The petitioner's guardian will produce the original will whenever she is called upon to do so.

5. That by the death of the petitioner's elder brother without issue, the petitioner has become solely entitled to the said pension by right of survivorship.

6. That the petitioner is being protected by his paternal aunt who took him under her care since the petitioner lost his mother in his infancy.

7. That the petitioner learns that one Venkatanarayan-Swamy of Bodenahalli, Devanahalli Taluk, is going to put-forward some false claim in respect of the pension. His father Suryanarayana Swamy had brought a false suit in O. S.1 of 1874 on the file of the Commissioner of Nandidroog against the deceased Dodda Venkata Lakshmammanni, her -- mother and several others which was dismissed. The dismissal order was confirmed in Appeal Suit No.3 of 1875 on the file of the Judicial Commissioner of Mysore. The Petitioner will produce certified copies of the judgments of both Courts whenever required.

W H E R E F O R E the petitioner respectfully prays that this Hon'ble Government may be pleased to order the grant of the Political Pension enjoyed by the petitioner's grand mother to the petitioner, since the petitioner has to depend mainly on the said pension he prays that early orders may be passed sanctioning the aforesaid grant.

To,

M. Visvesvaraya Esq.,B.A., L.C.E.,M.I.C.E.,

Most Honoured Dewan of M y s o r e,

B A N G A L O R E.

The humble petition of Charanappaia, son of Suryanarayanaswami, adopted son of the late Ananta Ramaswami, Pollegar of - Chickballapoor Family, residing in Bodena - Halli, Vadigenahalli Hobli, Devanahally - Taluk, Bangalore District:

Most Humbly & Respectfully Showeth:

1. That your petitioner's father Suryanarayanaswami was the adopted son of the late Ananta Ramaswami, a Pollegar pensioner of the Chickballapoor Family and a resident of - Enuminchenahalli.

2. That your petitioner's father Suryanarayanaswami died leaving a widow Lakshmammanni (petitioner's mother), your petitioner, and his elder brother Venkatanarayanaswami as the only heirs and survivors of the deceased's estate.

3. That your petitioner's brother the said Venkata'- Narayanaswami has been adopted to the late Rangappia of the C. Branch of the Family and is enjoying a family pension - ever since.

4. That after the death of your petitioner's father the said Suryanarayanaswami and on presentation to Government of an application by your petitioner and his mother the said Lakshmammanni, requesting the Government to sanction the pension in their names, the benign Government was then pleased to pass orders without any enquiry stating that the adoption of your petitioner's father by Ananta Ramaswami was invalid and that question of the pension cannot be considered and disposed of during the life-time of your petitioner's father's sisters, viz., Venkata Lakshmammanni & Putta Parvata-Ammanni to whom thepension was equally divided.

5. That out of the said sisters, Venkata Lakshmamanni died on 19-9-1913.

6. That the late Venkata Lakshmammanni & Putta Parvata-Ammanni were given away in marriage to separate families, viz., Koratigere Pollegar Chickppaiya and Bherike Palleput Bathala Halli Jahgirdar Venkata Giriappa, respectively.

7. That your petitioner humbly begs to submit and feels surprised to see as to how the adoption of Rangappia by Narain Swami in 1839 was found to be valid, and as to how the subsequent adoption of your petitioner's father by Ananta Ramaswami in 1842 was found to be invalid, without assigining any reasons whatever, though it was, it appears, made in accordance with Sastras, are essential matters to be considered by the venerable and benign Government for decision.

8. Be this as it may, Now your poor and humble petitioner and his mother have no means of livelihood whatever for reasons stated above and are helpless.

9. That your petitioner learns that the grand sons of the late Venkata Lakshmammanni have now applied for the continuance of the latter's pension in their names.

10. The petitioner most respectfully begs to submit that the grand sons have no manner of right to claim the deceased's pension as the late pensioner was married to a separate family as already represented.

11. That according to Hindu Law, your petitioner is the legal heir to claim the pension after the pensioner's demise.

12. That in the best name and gracious fame of Your Honour's Government, Your petitioner most humbly begs to order an enquiry into the matter by a perusal of all the records before the Government, and protect him by graciously sanctioning the pension of the deceased Venkata Lakshmammanni in the name of himself and his mother, who are really starving having lost all theproperty for maintenance sake.

13. That your petitioner and his mother have presented petitions mentioning their grievances said above to our Beloved Highness by Registered Post, for favourable consideration and orders.

14. That the Khazana Bakshi has also been requested through a petition to with-hold the payment of pension under the circumstances, pending final orders of Government after due enquiry.

15. That as the pension, which was in your petitioner's great grand father Krishnasami's name, was made to petitioner's uncle Ramaswami and now being enjoyed by Ananta Ramaswami, the petitioner as a legal heir to his grand father late Ananta Rama Swami, now claims the present pension.

Under these circumstances, your petitioner most humbly humbly and respectfully begs and craves that his poor case may kindly be taken into Your Excellency's Kind and Gracious consideration, order an enquiry into this meritorious matter, justice done to him and thus protected in the interests of Pollegar - Pensioners.

Your petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. Fl.1069/S&A.61-13-8 dated 3rd September 1914 in the matter of the pension of the late Dodda Venkatalakshmani Pallagar of the Chickballapur Pallagar Family, I have the honor to state that as Puttaparvatimmani was too old to present herself here, the inquiry directed by Government was requested to be made by the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar, whose report and the file of papers connected therewith are herewith forwarded. It will be seen therefrom that the old lady wishes that the pension should be disposed of in accordance with the orders of the Chief Commissioner dated 12th June 1868, regarding its devolution. That she has, however, not concerned herself with the pension till now though it became vacant long ago appears to lend color to the statement of the other claimants for it that she is not keen in having it herself.

The enquiry of the Deputy Commissioner could have been more extended and the lady's wishes ~~ascertained~~ as in the circumstance of there being a petition from her deceased sister's grandson praying for the grant of the pension, could have been ascertained

However as she has definitely expressed herself that the matter should be disposed of in accordance with the Chief Commissioners order, that question perhaps becomes unnecessary and the pension

pension has to be granted to Putta Parbatiammani herself.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Khazani Bakshi
